

EAST GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE

NEWS FROM THE DIRECTOR

Happy Autumn!

As cooler temperatures offer relief from the hot, muggy days of summer and leaves begin turning into vibrant shades of fall foliage, we are preparing for a bountiful schedule of activities at the Fulford Center.

We continue our focus on tutoring and will be providing SAT review sessions later this month and in early October.

A number of planetarium visits are scheduled, and a variety of local, regional, and state workshops and meetings are on the calendar.

All of these events enable the Fulford Center to function as an interactive and vibrant hub of learning and community building.

In everything we do, we remain dedicated to our goals of education, civic engagement, and hospitality.

JEAN D. SCHWABE, DIRECTOR

Thank you for being a part of our wonderful community.

I hope to see you soon at the center!
